NY series Take a Bite of the Big Apple: An Insider's Guide to New York

Join one, two, or more special NY outings. Each virtual tour will be followed by Q&A with NY/Brooklyn native and English Now! colleague Ellyn Leverone. NY tours continue in January. Visit each of NYC's five boroughs and more!

The Diversity that is Queens

08, Fri 6:00 pm

Visit Queens, where more than 800(!) languages are spoken. See neighborhoods with diverse traditions and delicious food-home to immigrants from Greece, India, China, and more. We'll also visit the site of the 1964 World's Fair.

Get to Know the Bronx North of NYC

08, Fri 10:30 am OR 15, Fri 6:00 pm

Discover the fascinating sights of the Bronx, often overlooked in most tours. We'll visit iconic Yankee stadium, New England-style City Island, the Bronx Zoo, and other wonderful sights. You won't believe how much the Bronx has to offer!

Staten Island-The "Suburbs", but in NYC

15, 10:30 am OR 22, 6:00 pm

Travel on the Staten Island Ferry (which is free!) with its gorgeous view of the Statue of Liberty, a beautiful nature center, and a Colonial Era village and farm museum complex. Let's hop on the ferry and take a good look around!

An Ethnic Food Tour of the Big Apple

22, 10:30 am OR 29, 6:00 pm

Join Ellyn on a culinary journey through many neighborhoods across NYC. We'll discover the vast array of iconic cuisines brought by immigrants from around the world. This outing is both educational and delicious!

Beyond the Met and MOMA

Jan 29, 10:30 am OR
Feb 5, 6:00 pm

In this outing we'll explore several of New York City's smaller museums that are often overlooked by visitors. Whatever your interest, New York has a museum waiting for you!

Celebrating Scientists and Global Collaboration

14, Thur 4:30 pm

This special event is co-hosted by Foundation for Advanced Education in the Sciences (FAES) at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). Join our international panel of NIH scientists to learn the facts about vaccines, gene-editing, lab science, and research funding at the NIH.

The Global Vision of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

18, Mon 12:00 pm

Many people overlook Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s worldwide reach and his global vision for peace. Join us for a discussion about global perspectives on the holiday that honors his life. In the words of Dr. King, "Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that." What do Dr. King's words mean to you?

Global Perspectives on Communication Using the 3R's

27, Wed 12:30 pm

Join English Now! student Sandra Montenegro and English Now! instructor Marian DeAngelo, to discuss effective communication. We will practice how to communicate using the 3Rs-Receive the message, Review it, and Respond to it, a strategy recommended by the Safe Community Coalition.

Students Facing Global Freshwater Crisis SSL Program

Week of Feb 22

WCIE offers another Student Service Learning (SSL) program for high school and university students, which includes a diplomatic simulation designed by the U.S. Department of State as well as a service/advocacy project. Students in South America on summer holiday can join classes and then this program!
